Module 7     Unit Title 4

Current Issues in Ag Trade: Resources to assist clients in participating in International trade

Time needed to complete unit       60 minutes

Why is this important to know?     Resources would be appropriate to help clients learn more about International trade.

Objectives/Purpose     Explore appropriate web sites on various aspects of international trade.

How to use this information

Review the three sites in the supporting materials for further exploration of international trade. The Agricultural Marketing Resource Center provides a wide array of issues ranging from unresolved biotechnology issues, global market for fresh produce, geographical property rights, meat traceability to name a few. It also has information on general country and agricultural information, exchange rates, trade barriers, regulatory considerations, and the World Trade Organization. Foreign Agricultural Trade of the United States (FATUS) is a standard USDA aggregation of several thousand HTS codes into 213 agricultural groups most used by the public. USDA Foreign Agricultural Service’s (FAS) U.S. Trade Internet System contains information on the country composition of FATUS regions and the HTS content of FATUS commodity groups for exports and imports.

Supporting materials     Activity 1: www.agmrc.org/markets/foodinternational.html
                        International Food Issues

Activity 2: www.agmrc.org/markets/international.html
                        International Markets

Activity 3: http://www.ers.usda.gov/data/fatus
                        United States Department of Agriculture foreign agricultural trade data

Materials may be reproduced in electronic or print form for use in educational or training activities. Authors should be credited for their work in all instances. All other reproduction or use of materials requires prior electronic or written permission by contacting cameronselby@purdue.edu